Gentlemen:

Herewith are three or four family sketches which were compiled by me over a period of years. Each was intended for deliverly to some interested family menber, these are the carbon copies.

The McKean sketch was published in the N.Y.G.&.B. Qtly some years ago. The Thomas, Tozer and Wilson sketches have neither been published or offered for publication.

The Wilson sketch is of that family correctly known as The District Wilsons. (of the District of Columbia). Some of the descendants by Zadok Wilson's first wife (Anna Beall, dau., sister, aunt or niece of Thomas Brooke Beall) are to be found in and around Georgetown and Washington; the children by his second wife are in Alabama for the most part. The grave of his second wife is to be found in Rock Creek Cemetery, in the right hand plot just in front of the chapel, it is plainly marked with a headstone, Zadok is presumed to lie in a grave in the same plot. Of his sons by the first wife, family tradition states one was killed during a negro uprising in Georgetown, he was shot while standing on his doorstep. The naming of a dau. Louis Madison Wilson in honor of her father, was because he was killed in a duel with Braxton Bragg, Jr. His step-mother was Augusta Evans Wilson who wrote St. Elmo.

However, I hope these may prove of some value to those searching within the family name scope.

Yours very sincerely,

George E. Bushnell.

DAVID MCKEAN

IMMIGRANT

A Partial Chart of His Descendants.

1. David McKean probably migrated to New York from Scotland. His arrival was probably soon after the Revolution. From the Register of Marriages, Trinity Church, New York, N.Y., Vol, 1, p 149; "David McKain and Elizabeth Brady, by Rev. Samuel Provost, March 16, 1786." The next record is from an inscription to the memory of David McKean in St. Paul's Chapel, Trinity Church, New York, N.Y.; "In memory of David McKean, 3rd and youngest son of the late Robert McKean, Esq. of Kilmarnock, Scotland, who died in this city of Yellow Fever, in the midst of his usefullness, on the 7th day of August 1795, aged 33 years and was interred in this churchyard." These establish the date of birth circa 1762/63, and his age at marriage at the average of 24 years. His wife, Elizabeth Brady, according to family records and old letters, was the daughter of William and Elizabeth (Williams) Brady. (See N.Y.G. & B Record, Vol. 8, page 94, 1877; Vol. 6, page 198; Vol. 23, page 62, 1892; for other information on this family.)

DESCENDANTS OF COLONEL JULIUS TOZER

ATHENS, PENNSYLVANIA.

Reference is made to "The History of Tioga Point and Athens, Pennsylvania for the record of Julius Tozer in the Revolution and War of 1812. This reference also covers the migration of his parents from Connecticut to the Wyoming Valley.

The following letters are in the possession of members of this family; the first is held by Miss Ethel Alexander of Geneva, Ills.; the second by Mrs. Sarah Margaret (Powell) Stookey of Weaverville, Calif. The copies are made as nearly perfect as is possible withaa typewriter;

"Saturday, May 24th, 1812, Pittsburgh.

"Dear friends - father and Mother, Brothers & Sisters
" We arrived at this place on wednesday 21st had as comfortable a Journey as could be expected the weather being very pleasant except two days of rain - we are all in good health at present - and have been blest with this greatest of all blessing since we left Tioga. We called on Mrs. Hebans. Staid a day and night with her, was treated with every mark of politeness possible. From here we pased through the Valey where Mr. Alexanders uncles lived staid 2 days with them then went on our Journey. Met with no misfortune - We have Just Returned from taking a walk through the Borough - went to see the Steem Mill - to the Market house - visited the glass house saw them Blowing Glass - from thence to the foundery where they are casting hollow ware and cannon balls to be carried to Canady- I will endeavor to give you a description of the place - it is situated on the head of the Ohio river on a point formed by the Junction of the Allegany and Monongahela rivers the former funning from the North E - and the latter from the S.W. the buildings for the worship of God are one episcopal Church (and our room we occupy is within a few yards of it) a large and spacious presbyterian meting house - a Church for Covenanters - one for German Lutherans a Roman Chappel - and Methodist church and likewise an academy, a very handome Courthouse. I had like to forgot to tell you we all went to a methodist meting, heard a very good sermon in a very hansome meting house. I could give you a more concise description of this place but time will not admit,our boat is Ready to convey us to the Illinois and we start this afternoon - the Journey to this place was not half so fatiegueing as I thought for when I left home so dont be conserned about us, we go on very slick and we are all young and in good health and Pretty good soldiers you know. Remember my Love to my good friends and neighbors. I shall write again when we get home and tell L. S. I shall write to her and also to Julia S. and to all my friends as fast as posible there is some talk of the Indians soing mischief but We are not going into danger if there is danger in venturing any farther than Cincinatti we shall make a halt there or at the falls of Ohio.
" People are contunually Pasing down the river and it is said there is no kind of danger while on the river Ohio but on the land or wilderness they are ghthord in small bodies and do all the mischief they can while some Partiess

"of the same nations are sewing for peace and very friendly, but are generally thought to be traitors - You shall hear from us at the first Post Office and then in all probability can tell you more about it. There is two families going down with us in the same boat we shall go on as soon as peacible as you please. Tell Brother Sam'l and Julius I shall send them my Journal when I get to my Journeys end. Mr. Alexander - Mr. P and Mrs. P. Mr. Warden Remember their best Love and respects to you all and Betsy your brother Hugh will write to you and sister L.

I'm in haste, and in health subscribe myself your affectionate daughter friend and sister

Hannah Alexander.

"Athens, March 3, 1810.

"Dear Sisters:

After waiting all winter for a few lines from you, and not receiving any-thing of the kind; we have almost concluded that you Illinois ladies have join'd with Brother Daniel in saying that we Pennsylvanians are not worthy to receive a letter from those who live in the Territory. But never mind; you can pay postage and that will do as well since your neighbor Mr. T--, has been kind enough to inform us, of your health, prosperity, and the birth of another son etc. etc.

I have the pleasure of informing you of the health of the family as being good, Aunt Susan accepted who has been very sick for the week past. But her simtoms today have been more favorable and we are in hopes that she will be about again in a few days. There has been several deats in this place, notwithstanding it cannot be said to be -- sickley. Mrs. Prentice, Mrs. Cook, and Mr. John Saltmarsh have all fallen victims to the grim tyrant, before whom we must all shortly bow -- Poor Julia feels the loss of her dear good mother very sensibly. Although she has a hope, -- and a good foundation for that hope; that she has exchanged the vanities of time and sense for a home where sorrow, pain, and distress, can never come. Esther will start in a few days for Elmira. Lyvia is at home yet (as is the custom of the family) and I guess will be untill after you know when. Well how about brother William, where is he, and what is he doing; he is here and hearty and I believe in good spirits -- The probability is, that he will be somewhat disappointed on getting his just due from his friends but he will get some of it.

Grandmother Miller is as well as she has been for years past and all the rest of the friends as far as I know --

Brother Daniels friends also are all well your brothers widow is married to Joseph P. Lankford. There is a report that Phebe Gibs likewise is taken by a young drake but whether it is so or not I can't say.

But stop a little until I sharpen my knife and mend my pen, and Ill tell you what our calculations are as it respects our coming on there with Descendants.

"brother William -- Samuel Julius and myself intend accompanying him home but he thinks he shall be rather lonesome without a pilot therefore he has engaged a young lady by the name of Lucy Harris not only down the Susquehannah and Ohio, but he engaged her for; but has got her bound for during the war. And a fine girl she is too. The ceremony is not past yet, but I expect it will be in a short time. I am spinning a wagon cover with all my might I hardly know how to spend time to think, but when we get on there I will tell you all about it. If you can find out what I have written do; for I must confess that I am much at a loss to what it is; so good by for the present.

The family all join in love to you and those dear little babes of yours,

To all of our folks,
Betsy R. Tozer."

Envelope marked, "Athens, Penna. March 3", addressed to:
"Mr. Daniel Pierce,
Illinois Territory,
Clintonhill Postoffice."

1. Julius Tozer, b. Montville, Conn., 16 June 1764, d. Athens, Penna. 8 Dec. 1852, md. 1786, Hannah Conklin, b. Sag Harbor, L.I., N.Y. 7 Oct. 1764, d. Athens, Penna. 5 Mar. 1832, dau. of Ananias and Alcy (Leek) Conklin.

Julius Tozer, at the age of 12 years, began his service in the Revolution. Being too small to handle a musket, he drove a team of oxen in the artillery. He served throught the war. At the outbreak of the War of 1812, he raised a regiment, and lost his leg at the Battle of Lake Erie.

Children, 11, (perhaps 13):

2*. i. Hannah Tozer, b. 4 Oct. 1787. (Author of the first letter).
3*. ii. Elizabeth Ransom Tozer, b. 4 Oct. 1787. (Author of second letter.)
4*. iii. Alcy Tozer, b. 5 Mar. 1789.
5. iv. Samuel Tozer, b. Wyoming Valley, Penna. 1793.
6*. v. Julius Tozer, b. Wyoming Valley, Penna. 14 Mar. 1794.
7*. vi. Lucy Tozer, b. Athens, Penna. 25 Jan. 1796.
8*. vii. Guy Tozer, b. Athens, Penna. 7 Mar. 1789.

12*. xi. Cynthia Tozer, b. Athens, Penna. 1 May 1809.
xii. Dorothy Tozer.
xiii. Mary A. Tozer.

These last two do not appear in any of the family records I have been able to secure. The names were given in a newspaper clipping of some years ago, however it is my belief that Dorothy was Dorothy (Newton) Tozer, mother of Julius, who died in Athens, and is buried there. I have no inkling of the possible identity of Mary A. Tozer. G.E.B.

Ancestry.

The ancestry of Zadok Wilson, of the District of Columbia, was compiled for Mrs. William R. McKenney, of Petersburg, Va., who was kind enough to allow me to copy it into my records.

The partial chart of the descendants of Zadok Wilson was gathered by me through the courtesy of many of the members of this family.

1. Josiah Wilson, b. Dunbar, Haddingtonshire, Scotland, d. Charlestown, Md. 1717, md. 1699, probably in Md., Martha Lingan, whodd. Prince George's county, Md., dau. of George Lingan. He came to Maryland from Scotland, circa 1660.
Children, 6, perhaps others:
2*. i. Josiah Wilson, b. Prince George's county, Md., 1790,
3. ii. Lingan Wilson, md. Mary Beall, dau. of Alexander Beall.
4. iii. James Wilson.
5*. iv. Joseph Wilson.
6. v. Joshua Wilson.
7. vi. Martha Wilson..

*2. Josiah Wilson, b. Prince George's county, Md., 1700, d. there, 1732, md. Elizabeth Sprigg, who d. Anne Arundel county, Md., 1781, dau. of Thomas and Margaret (Mariarte) Sprigg.
Children, 3, perhaps others:
8*. i. Henry Wilson, b. Prince George's county, Md., 1723.
9. ii. Margaret Wilson.
10. iii. Martha Wilson.

*5. Joseph Wilson, md., name of spouse unknown,
Children, 1, perhaps others:
11*. i. Ann Wilson, b. Prince George's county, Md., md. her cousin, Henry (8) Wilson.

*8. Henry Wilson, b. Prince George's county, Md., 1725, d. Campbell county, Va., 1777-8, md. his cousin, Ann (11) Wilson, dau. of Joseph (5) Wilson; md. 2nd, in Va., Agnes Lacy.
Children, 5, 2 by 1st marriage:
12*. i. Henry Wilson, b. Prince George's county, Md., 1749.
13. ii. Osborn Sprigg Wilson, bp. Prince George's county, Md., 9 May 1752.
